

THE GROSS FAMILY CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF
ANTI-SEMITISM AND THE HOLOCAUST

2016-2017 SPEAKER SERIES

I have tried to keep memory alive, and have tried to fight those who would forget.
Because if we forget, we are guilty, we are accomplices.

—Elie Wiesel

As the number of living Holocaust survivors decreases and global anti-Semitism increases, Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County and the Gross Family Center for the Study of Anti-Semitism and the Holocaust are working together to raise awareness of the Holocaust and prejudice faced by Jewish people around the world.

The Gross Family Anti-Semitism and the Holocaust Speaker Series is providing the Palm Beaches with innovative adult educational programming that explores the experiences and consequences of anti-Semitism, racism and violations of human rights.

This speaker series – free and open to the public – features prominent experts and international speakers, connecting community members to a significant aspect of the Jewish experience.

Fanny's Journey (Le Voyage de Fanny)

Directed by Lola Doillon, France, 2016, 94 min.

French with subtitles.

Monday, February 6, 2017

It's 1943 and Fanny, age 13, and her little sisters are sent to a foster home for Jewish children by her parents for protection. As the Nazis get closer, the staff desperately organizes the departure of the children for Switzerland and safety. When the children are suddenly left alone, eleven of them try to do the impossible and reach the Swiss border. Inspired by the autobiography of Fanny Ben-Ami, the film is an incredible tale of bravery, strength and survival.
